contorted strata of different-colored rock form whorls and waves of color in the rock face, which the Nabataeans exploited in their architecture. Drive back to your hotel, dinner and overnight.

DAY 04: Breakfast, visit to the little Petra, then proceed to Wadi Rum Stunning in its natural beauty, Wadi Rum epitomizes the romance of the desert. With its "moonscape" of ancient valleys and towering sandstone mountains rising out of the sand, Wadi Rum is also "Home" to several Bedouin tribes who live in scattered camps throughout the area. Climbers are especially attracted to Wadi Rum because of its sheer granite and sandstone cliffs, while hikers enjoy its vast empty spaces. Wadi Rum is probably best known because of its connection with the enigmatic British officer T.E. Lawrence, who was based here during the Great Arab Revolt of 1917-18. Camping in tents. (No need for sleeping bags).
